

ACTING WITH MRS. DAVIS

Using Theatre Arts techniques and activities to address social & emotional learning, culture and diversity.

ABOUT MRS. DAVIS

ShaVonne Banks-Davis is a Certified Theatre Educator who has taught Theatre Arts and hosted after-school programs for various DFW school districts. She received a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre Arts from Clark Atlanta University in Atlanta, GA, and is very proud to serve the youth in her hometown of Fort Worth, TX. Her success in the classroom fueled a passion to use Theatre Arts as a tool to build relationships with students, grow educators, and cultivate safe learning environments and working spaces.

AFTER-SCHOOL YOUTH ENRICHMENT

Virtual Hangout 101

After-School Enrichment Program

In partnership with Maroon 9 Community Enrichment Organization

DESCRIPTION

An array of virtual workshops and discussions for students of all ages on various topics hosted by community professionals. Workshops and discussions are based on important topics such as social awareness, vision & goal setting, life skills, and self-care. Interactive and high-energy classes include STEM, dance, art, theatre, and health & wellness. The program also features small group mentoring for young men and women.

OBJECTIVE

"Virtual Hangout 101" fulfills the need of having engaging virtual learning experiences due to Covid-19 and social distancing. The program was designed to provide youth a platform for creative expression and a safe place to share opinions and experiences with their peers. The format of providing multiple sessions on various topics increases the value of the program and maximizes the amount of enrichment that participants receive.
